

2011 USA Pro Cycling Challenge
Prologue – Garden of the Gods to Colorado Springs – August 22, 2011
Spectator Advisory

At just 5.2 miles in length, the opening prologue is the perfect opportunity to meet some of the riders, hang out in team parking, catch a few starts and then head over to Colorado Springs to catch some of the finishes, the Expo, and the award presentations.

Our Recommendation: Get there early and ride your bike, bring a backpack with food and water, it is going to be a full-day adventure

Basic Information

- First rider is off at 1:15. Riders go off in 60-second intervals. Last ten riders go off at 2-minute intervals
- Teams will arrive at 11:30am and will park at the Garden of the Gods Visitor Center
- See the race timetable on the event website for course directions. Once the race begins, you will not be able to cross the course
- If you are driving, your best route will be via I-25. Northbound traffic should exit at Exit 143 and follow Uintah to the west. Look for signs for spectator parking. Southbound I-25 traffic should take exit 145 and take Filmore St. Look for signs for spectator parking.
- It will be much more difficult to get between the start and finish, if you are driving. If you need to drive, find parking outside the park and ride your bike. By bike, it is about 25 minutes from the start to the finish for you. By car, it could be an hour...if you can find parking.
- You will not be able to ride your bike on the race course.
- Be a good spectator and don't leave any trash for others to clean up.
- Please, DO NOT PAINT on the roads (even chalk paint). If you want to place a slogan on the route, please use chalk.
